

COVID-19 IMPACT COST SAVINGS & BUSINESS CONTINUITY SURVEY

Coronavirus is impacting businesses at an unprecedented level and speed, catapulting companies to adjust to ever changing circumstances and uncertainty. Most have lowered revenue projections, accelerated layoffs and cut other expenses.

We polled our Atlanta CFO community as we believe exchanging best practices, war stories, and potential solutions will inure to the benefit of CFOs and build a stronger finance community.

Has COVID-19 had a significant, measurable impact on your organization's business operations?

■ Yes ■ No

When do you expect your business to return to normal?

■ 0-3 Months ■ 6-12 Months ■ Unknown

Does your organization have a business continuity plan for natural disasters, market challenges and health issues?

■ Yes ■ No

What percentage of costs do you believe need to be offset?

■ 5-10% ■ 10-20% ■ 20-30% ■ 30%+

Which of the following are your organization's top challenges in 2020 considering the recent pandemic?

What has your organization implemented to allow for "social distancing"?

Which of the following have you implemented related to corporate communications as a result of the COVID-19 outbreak?

What is your company's plan to cut costs during this time of economic uncertainty?

Is your company currently seeing the effects of a disruption to the supply chain?

Other COVID-19 Impacts:

- Liquidity risk
- VPN reliability
- If organization's HQ is in major risk area, are plans being made for other geographies
- Additional financing needs
- Paid leave for sick employees and those without childcare due to closures